FOREIGN OFFICE, S.W.1.

27 September 1967

Dear Signor Brosio,

I have now seen your letter to me about the report of Sub-Group I, which you mentioned to me at the Belgian Ambassador's luncheon.

It seems to me a most useful document. I am very glad to have the suggestions in it; and I am sure that Herr Schütz will feel the same. I think you have put your finger on certain ambiguities, which might cause misunderstanding. I believe we will be able to remove these in the course of revising the draft, on which we are now engaged. This is particularly true about the different meanings now given to the word "Europe". The same applies to the references to Soviet bureaucracy: we did not mean to make a distinction between it and the Soviet Government.

May I say how much I appreciate your characteristically kind and helpful suggestions.

I have sent a copy of your letter to Herr Schütz, as you requested.

Yours sincerely
Adam Watson
(J.H.A. Watson)

Signor Manlio Brosio,
Secretary General of NATO,
PARIS.
