

Table 1
Structural changes in industry in 1992-1995 by use intensity of production factors

Factor of production/Sectors	Year	Proceeds from sales (PLZ million)	Share %	Net financial result (PLZ million)	Gross financial result (PLZ million)	Employment (thousands of persons)	Share %
Labour-intensive food products, beverages, tobacco, fabrics, clothing, furs, leather, leather goods, footwear, jewellery, musical instruments, sports goods, games and toys, waste processing.	1992	27427.7	28.0	-616.0	167.9	990	29.4
	1993	33775.5	26.3	-664.4	223.7	1073	32.2
	1994	47286.0	28.2	236.9	1305.4	1039	32.2
	1995	66249.3	28.5	620.5	1743.9	1067	32.8
Resource-intensive coal mining, peat extraction, petroleum and natural gas, uranium and metal ore mining, other mining, wood and wood products, cellulose pulp, paper and paperboard, coal and coke products, oil refining, nuclear fuels, furniture, supply of electricity, gas and water	1992	35997.8	36.7	-279.5	1481.1	846	25.1
	1993	48408.3	37.7	230.5	2280.9	791	23.8
	1994	63008.7	37.6	2192.9	4279.0	762	23.6
	1995	69407.1	29.9	1575.0	3236.6	752	23.1
Standard products based on mature technology products from paper and paperboard, publishing, products from non-metallic materials, metals production, metal end-products	1992	13278.7	13.6	-737.7	-47.6	561	16.6
	1993	16597.3	12.9	-353.5	344.1	547	16.4
	1994	23784.2	14.3	262.5	1040.1	532	16.6
	1995	35065.9	15.1	1429.0	2571.2	539	16.6
Technology-intensive sectors based on component supplies artificial fibres, products from rubber and plastic, electrical machinery and equipment (except lighting), motor vehicles parts	1992	7012.8	7.1	-442.9	-140.5	263	7.8
	1993	10568.8	8.2	-232.3	78.2	255	7.7
	1994	12451.0	7.4	80.5	484.8	255	7.9
	1995	18778.4	8.1	438.6	843.0	262	8.1
Technology-intensive sectors based on innovative technology chemicals and chemical products, mechanical machinery and equipment, office machinery and computers, lighting equipment, radio, television and communications equipment, musical instruments, specialised and optical equipment, clocks and watches, motor vehicles, other transport equipment	1992	14365.5	14.6	-1061.3	-299.1	713	21.1
	1993	19118.1	14.9	-1202.2	-278.2	661	19.9
	1994	20940.1	12.5	420.8	1262.7	634	19.7
	1995	42620.9	18.4	942.5	2099.1	629	19.4

Source: Calculated on the basis of official data of the Central Statistical Office according to the European Classification of Activity. The classification of products used in the table was based on the international project sponsored by the Commission of the European Union under the ACE Programme 1993 "Foreign Direct Investment East-West".