1. The EADRCC received the request for assistance from the Kyrgyz Republic 18.06.05.

Heavy flood has occurred these days in the South of the Kyrgyz Republic, Osh, Batken and Jalalabat region. About 79 towns and villages have suffered from this natural disaster. A large number of houses (3800) and more than 180 km of the main roads are damaged. 66 bridges need urgent repair. Large areas of agricultural land are flooded. Some 1350 families have to be taken care of, and approximately 1500 households have to be disinfected.

The Kyrgyz authorities use all available resources to help the affected population, but destroyed roads hamper the evacuation of and the help.

It is too early to estimate the total damage, but the preliminary assessment indicate severe costs.

At this stage there is an urgent need for any technical and financial assistance and food and medicine.
