1. Even though floods are receding the situation in the flood stricken counties Harghita, Bacau, Vrancea, Galati and Braila is still critical, as people are still unable to return to their homes.

1.1 The death toll has risen to 30 people, more than 13.000 people have been evacuated. The number of affected localities has risen to 700. The figure for affected agricultural areas has also been revised upwards, from 88.000 ha to 94.000 ha.

1.2 Romanian authorities continue to provide food, water and shelter to the evacuated population. Vaccinations against hepatitis type A and against typhoid are being administered. Efforts to drain flood waters from houses and agricultural areas, to remove animal corpses and to distribute pest control substances against insects are ongoing.

2. The following international assistance is required:
