3.6. Preschool, primary and secondary education has being provided with 35 classes for 805 Syrian Citizens, 420 of them are girls and 385 are boys. Moreover, activities aimed to provide 3.561 Syrian children and youth in Kilis, to start education are in progress.

4. National resources available for disaster response and measures taken:

4.1. In response to displacement from Syrian Arab Republic to Turkey, it has been provided services such as sheltering, food, health, security, social activities, education, worship, communication and other services in tent cities and containers with related organizations and institutions within the coordination of Turkish Presidency.

4.2. Turkey established 6 refugee camps in 3 border regions, and is currently working to upgrade the capacity of the camps to receive 10.000 more. Hot meals have being supplied for Syrian Citizens three times a day.

4.3. However, upon the considerable increase in number of refugees, the Turkish authorities have decided to accept offers by the international community to share the burden.

5. Assistance provided by EAPC nations and international organisations:

5.1. The United Nations` Syria Regional Response Plan outlines current and future needs for some 100,000 Syrian refugees over six months. Led by UNHCR, the plan is a result of a coordinated effort between seven UN agencies, 27 national and international NGOs and partners, and host governments.

5.2. The UNHCR providing technical support as well as thousands of tents and tens of thousands of blankets to the refugee camps in Turkey.

5.3. Austria has made an offer for assistance listed below:

- 25 family tents (cotton);
- 480 blankets (200x150cm);
- 300 kitchen sets (family of 5 persons, type A ,IFRC Standard).

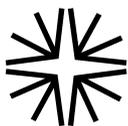

This assistance, provided by AUSTRIA through EU CP Mechanism, has been meanwhile accepted by Turkey. The equipment will be shipped to Adana in the course of this week. This operation is expected to be completed by end of next week.

5.4. Norway has offered financial contribution to support the setup/running of refugee camps in Turkey. Funding will be channeled to the Turkish Red Crescent via the Norwegian Red Cross. The amount of the contribution is not yet decided.

6. The following requirements for international assistance have been identified:
