1. In accordance with the procedures at reference, the EADRCC has received on 13 April 2012 a disaster assistance request from Turkey dated 13 April 2012 19:09 UTC.
2. The United Nations Organisations and the European Union have also received a formal request from Turkey.

3. General Situation

3.1. From April to August, the overall number of refugees has more than tripled. According to UNOCHA, Turkey's closure of its borders to commercial traffic has not affected access for refugees. However, many of the recent arrivals have fled from Aleppo, reporting difficulties en route, including snipers and roadblocks. Recent arrivals are temporarily hosted in boarding schools in the cities of Gaziantep, Kilis, Osmaniye, Kahramanmarash and Adana until further camps are operational. The Turkish authorities are planning to open up to thirteen new sites in order to increase hosting capacity from 50,000 to 100,000 refugees. Food assistance and health services continue to be provided by the Turkish authorities. The UNHCR is providing core relief items for emergency shelter.

3.2. On 18 – 19 August 2012, 1.628 Syrian citizens arrived in Turkey.

3.3. The number of refugees arriving from Syria is 101.947 and the number that have returned to Syria is 32.119.

3.4. As of 19 August 2012, 69.828 people have being sheltered in Turkey:

- 11.030 Syrian Citizens in Hatay;

NON - CLASSIFIED

- 11.272 Citizens in Gaziantep (3.172 of them are sheltered in schools, dorms and sport saloons);
- 14.099 Citizens in Kilis (1.957 of them are sheltered in schools and dorms);
- 25.863 Citizens in Şanlıurfa.
- Also 3.026 Syrian Citizens in Kahramanmarash, 2.024 in Adana, 987 in Adiyaman and 1.527 in Osmaniye are temporary sheltered in boarding schools.

3.5. Until today 492 people are in hospitals, 439 of whom are injured. The total number of Syrian Citizens present in Turkey is 69.828.

3.6. Preschool, primary and secondary education is being provided for a total of 4.511 Syrian children and youth in total ( with 35 classes for 805 students in Hatay, 420 which are girls and 385 are boys; 64 classes for 2.690 students in Kilis; 4 preschools and 4 classes for 416 students in Gaziantep and 12 classes for 600 students in Şanlıurfa).

4. National resources available for disaster response and measures taken:

4.1. In response to displacement from Syrian Arab Republic to Turkey, it has been provided services such as sheltering, food, health, security, social activities, education, worship, communication and other services in tent cities and containers with related organizations and institutions within the coordination of the Turkish Presidency.

4.2. Syrian Citizens have been sheltered in 9 tent cities and a container city established by Turkish Prime Ministry AFAD. Four (4) tent cities in Altınözü and Yayladağı of Hatay Province, 3 tent cities in Reyhanlı, Apaydın and Karbeyaz, a tent city in Caylanpınar of Şanlıurfa Province, a tent city in İslahiye of Gaziantep Province and a container in Kilis, with a total capacity to shelter 12.000 people, have been established. On 6 August the Turkish Government opened a new camp facility in Akcakale. This camp is already hosting more than 8,000 refugees. There are currently ten camps accommodating Syrian refugees in the country.

4.3. Hot meals have been supplied for Syrian Citizens three times a day.

4.4. However, upon the considerable increase in number of refugees, the Turkish authorities have decided to accept offers by the international community to share the burden.

5. Assistance provided by EAPC nations and international organisations:

5.1. The United Nations Syria Regional Response Plan outlines the current and future needs for some 100,000 Syrian refugees over six months. Led by UNHCR, the plan is a result of a coordinated effort between seven UN agencies, 27 national and international NGOs and partners, and host governments.

5.2. The UNHCR is providing technical support as well as thousands of tents and tens of thousands of blankets to the refugee camps in Turkey.

5.3. The United Nations Central Emergency Response Fund (CERF) has disbursed 2 mln USD for the refugee camps in Turkey.

5.4. Austria has made an offer for assistance listed below:

- 25 family tents (cotton);
- 480 blankets (200x150cm);
- 300 kitchen sets (family of 5 persons, type A ,IFRC Standard).

This assistance, provided by AUSTRIA through EU CP Mechanism, has been meanwhile accepted by Turkey. The equipment was delivered to Adana on 3 May 2012.

5.5. On 06 June 2012 the Republic of Croatia provided a financial contribution in the amount of 50 000 US$ to the Prime Ministry Syria Aid Account.

5.6. France sent an assistance with:

- 75 family tents;
- 600 blankets;
- 216 kitchen sets.

This assistance, provided by France through EU CP Mechanism, has been in the meanwhile accepted by Turkey. The equipment was delivered to Turkey on 5 May 2012.

5.7. On 17 April 2012 Hungarian authorities made an offer through the European Civil Protection Mechanism, which has been accepted by the Turkish Authorities. The offer consisted of:

- 5.000 blankets;
- 709 bed sheets.

The cargo with these items departed from Hungary on 30 May and arrived at the International Disaster Delivery Centre in Adana on the 3 June 2012.

5.8. Israel has offered mostly medical aid to Syrian refugees in Turkish camps.

5.9. Norway has sent a financial contribution in the amount of 10 mln. Norwegian crowns (approx. 1,25 mln. €) to support the setup of refugee camps in Turkey to the Turkish Red Crescent via the Norwegian Red Cross.

6. The following requirements for international assistance have been identified:
