Commander KFOR, General Erhard Bühler welcomes “Xixellonjat” childrens choir at Film City

Today, the 24th of March 2011, the Pristina children choir “Xixellonjat” was guest at Headquarters KFOR (Camp Film City).

“XIXËLLONJAT” (Lightning bugs), a vocal group from Pristina, founded in 1993 by Mrs. DRITA RUDI, the actual Director, and formed by children and youngsters.

As a traditional event, 25 young singers, 6 to 14 years old, performed a great variety of songs in different languages, representing the soldiers of all the troop contributing nations serving in the KFOR Mission. They wanted to thank the military representatives for what their nations have contributed for all people living in Kosovo, no matter what ethnic group or religion they belong to.

The performance lasted about one hour and was held in a warm and pleasant atmosphere, which turned HQ building in a concert hall animated by the happiness of the children.

General Bühler and nearly every member of the staff attended the performance which was very much appreciated. After thanking the director and the children all on his behalf and on behalf of all the 32 contributing nations of the KFOR Mission,

Major General Bühler presented some gifts to the little artists, hoping to get the chance to attend another performance of the choir in the future.
