Federal Minister of Interior of Northrhine-Westphalia visited HQ KFOR

Commander KFOR informed Minister Ralf Jäger on the current situation of the KFOR Mission

Commander KFOR General Erhard Bühler in his Headquarters in Pristina welcomes today (17th June 2011) the Minister of Interior of the the German Federal State of Northrhine-Westphalia (Bundesland Nordrhein-Werstfalen) Ralf Jäger.

During a briefing on the current situation in Kosovo in general and on the KFOR-Mission in detail, General Bühler especially praised the strong alliance with EULEX focused on improving the security situation all over Kosovo in benefit of the citizens of the country. This good cooperation has contributed to successful security operations.

General Bühler especially highlighted the support of members of the police of Northrhine-Westphalia within the EULEX – Mission, symbolized by the personal attendance and commitment of Senior Police Director Udo Möller, Head of EULEX-Police. He has largely contributed to the close and good cooperation between KFOR and the EULEX Police Department. Mr Möller is a high ranking policeman having served all his professional life in the police force of this German Federal State which heavily supports international police missions.

Additionally COM KFOR underlines the strong contribution of soldiers based in the land of Northrhine-Westphalia.

Minister Jäger was accompanied by a high level delegation of members of the Land Parliament of Northrhine-Westphalia (Landtag) and the Police Force of this Federal State.
