KFOR confirms removal of road block

KFOR confirms reports that a road block on a secondary road in the area of Zubin Potok, has been removed this morning.

The aim of this operation was to improve the access for Kosovo citizens to the main road and to re-establish the freedom of movement in the vicinity of Zubin Potok.

This action was conducted in close coordination with EULEX and passed off without any disturbance.

The situation in Kosovo in general has been reported as calm. There is no information about significant incidents.

KFOR expects that citizens in all parts of Kosovo will stay calm and will help to avoid violence
