Commander KFOR, General Erhard BÜHLER visited the municipality of Kamenica

On 17th August 2011, Commander Kosovo Force (KFOR), General Erhard Bühler, following his tour visit to the Municipalities in Kosovo, with the intent to meet the Municipalities Mayors, the local political and religious representatives, visited the municipality of Kamenica.

General Bühler was received at the Municipal Buildings by the mayor Mr. Shaip SURDULLI and the high local representatives and he was informed on the current situation of the town. During the talk, the mayor appreciated the mediator role of General Bühler in solving the challenging situation in the North.

Then Commander KFOR had a short and friendly meeting with the local press pointing out the good cooperation between the municipality and KFOR and underlining that the municipality should be a role model to the other municipalities because of the partnership among different ethnic groups.

During his walk through the town accompanied by the mayor, COMKFOR visited the construction site of the new municipal building where he was positively impressed by the improvement in the works.

Later, Commander KFOR visited the Serb Ortodox Church and the Mosque, where he met both religious authorities.

Even in this occasion General Bühler headlined the fact that people with different creeds live there well integrated and try to solve all the problems through the dialogue.

Those visits are conducted by Commander of KFOR as part of his program to reconcile the religions in Kosovo in order to improve mutual respect, tolerance and common efforts to improve stability and security.

Finally during his visit Commander KFOR also visited the local Kosovo Police Stations and paid a visit to the KP Borders Police Station in Muciverce, where he had a short talk with the commanders and their staff.
