

The Euro-Atlantic Partnership Council in 2004

The Euro-Atlantic Partnership is built on two partnerships that involve the same countries and promote the same values: the Euro-Atlantic Partnership Council and the Partnership for Peace. These parallel partnerships both aim at cooperating for an increased stability in the Euro-Atlantic area.

Turkey recognises the Republic of Macedonia with its constitutional name.

