

Partnership for Peace in 1996

Following elections held on the 26 October 1996, the Maltese Government stated its desire to terminate its participation in NATO's Partnership for Peace program. Such involvement was considered to be incompatible with the constitutional provisions defining Malta's neutrality.

Turkey recognises the Republic of Macedonia with its constitutional name.

NATO

Partnership for Peace 1994 1995 1996