NEWCOMERS BRIEFING

The NATO Training Group Financial Sub Group – in the field of Joint Education and Training – is a Sub-Group of the NTG which is established to initiate and develop co-ordination and standardization of individual and collective training in order to enhance interoperability among Alliance forces, and additionally between the forces of Partner Nations.

NEWCOMERS BRIEFING

The NTG FSG acts as a multinational group of financial experts. The aim of the NTG FSG is to enhance interoperability among Alliance Forces and Forces of Partners through improved co-ordination and standardization of individual and collective training, via improving cost-effectiveness and efficiency in order to economize on the use of resources.

NEWCOMERS BRIEFING

The NTG FSG meetings are held usually twice a year, normally in Spring and Autumn. The mentioned above meetings are organized and hosted by participating Nations on a rotational basis on dates and in locations chosen by the delegates.

NEWCOMERS BRIEFING

For practical reasons (meetings up to 30 different countries), the NTG FSG delegates have agreed to accept the English language as the working language of the Sub-Group.
