3. Assistance provided/offered by EAPC Nations:

3.1 On 4th of June Republic of Belarus sent to the stricken nation the following assistance:

- Blankets – 5000 pieces;
- Canned meat – 40032 pieces;
- Canned sweet milk – 5040 pieces;
- Sugar – 5000 kg;
- Soaps – 2800 pieces.

The assistance's value is USD 164000.

3.2 The Government of Italy has decided to grant a contribution of € 25.000,00 (twenty-five thousand euros) in favour of the Bilateral Emergency Fund of the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC). This contribution will fully cover the financing of the emergency operation called "Tajikistan: Floods" (DREF operation n. MDRTJ008 15 April 2010), together with the funds already granted to that end by the European Commission. Specifically the funds will be utilized by the Red Crescent Society of Tajikistan to provide to 120 families (720 beneficiaries) first aid emergency supplies such as tents, blankets, mattresses, drinkable water, hygiene kits and medical kits. Finally, in the framework of this emergency operation, assistance will also be provided in terms of psychological support to the victims in order to facilitate a smooth return to stability, over the next four months, namely in the districts of Vose, Shurobod, Muminobod, Sarband and Istaravstan.

3.3 The Government of Kazakhstan has donated 50 million KZT (~340 000 USD).

3.4 The Russian Ministry for Emergencies delivered humanitarian aid to Tajikistan on 2nd of June, including:

- mobile generators (80kW) – 4 units;
- summer tents “Pamir-30” – 20 kits;
- summer tents “Pamir-10” – 90 kits;
- sugar – 20 tons;
- canned fish – 1094 boxes (17 tons);
- canned meat – 1492 boxes (20 tons).

The overall estimated cost of the Russian emergency humanitarian operation is about USD 661000.

3.5 Spain is preparing a shipment of medicines and medical equipment. The gross weight of the shipment will be around 400 kg and the estimated price is 5.000 euros. According to the Spanish Ministry of Defence the assistance will be shipped (planned for 12th June) from the military airport near Madrid to Dushanbe airport using a Boeing-707 airplane of the Spanish Air Force. Spain is also generously offering a transportation opportunity (free of charge) for other possible offers of assistance depending on their weight and volume on the Spanish Air Force flight to Dushanbe. The cargo should be delivered to Madrid, and should be prepared for the airlift (paper work).

3.6 The Government of Ukraine has informed the EADRCC that 15 diesel generators (24 KWT) and 88 large capacity tents will be sent to Tajikistan on 9th of June. The total cost of humanitarian aid including air transportation is 4.860.000 UAH (~600000 USD).

3.7 The United States provided $50,000 (fifty thousand US dollars) through USAID/Tajikistan to Save the Children for the provision of humanitarian relief supplies, including hygiene kits, blankets, first aid supplies, and other non-food items, to displaced individuals living in tent communities.
