

JEREMY S. GUSTAFSON

Senior Development Advisor,
U.S. European Command Headquarters

Jeremy Gustafson is USAID's Senior Development Advisor to the U.S. European Command in Stuttgart, Germany.

He joined the Foreign Service in 2005, and has expertise in urban, economic, environment and infrastructure programming. He is on his 13th year overseas with USAID – previous posts include Egypt, South Sudan, India/South Asia energy, and the Philippines/Pacific Islands regional. Before USAID, Jeremy was a researcher at the Urban Institute, which is a policy research organization in Washington, DC; and was a Peace Corps Volunteer in The Gambia.

He holds grad degrees in Strategic Studies (Army War College) and Urban Planning (U.T. Austin), and an undergrad from U.W. Madison.

Jeremy is married with two kids and is originally from Milwaukee.