1. LICENSE

AC/135 hereby grants to the Licensee a non-exclusive, non-assignable entitlement and license to use the NMCRL for the duration of this license, subject to the Licensee agreeing to be bound by the non-disclosure provisions stated herein. The NMCRL includes "limited rights data" owned by certain NATO countries and certain manufacturers and such data constitutes Proprietary Information belonging to these entities. Therefore, as required by the NATO Standardization Agreement (STANAG) 4438 on the Codification of Equipment Uniform System of Dissemination of Data Associated with NATO Stock Numbers, the Licensee shall protect the confidentiality of this Proprietary Information as part of these terms of use.

2. NON-DISCLOSURE

The Licensee agrees:

- (a) that the use of Proprietary Information to which the Licensee is granted access under this license shall be strictly limited to the Licensee. The Licensee is forbidden to repackage the NMCRL data or to transfer it by any means or in any form to third parties not party to this license;
- (b) that the Licensee shall not, without prior written approval from AC/135, disclose or provide access to NMCRL Proprietary Information to anyone who is not an employee of the Licensee;
- (c) to report any unauthorized disclosure of NMCRL data to the AC/135 as soon as possible;
- (d) to adopt operating procedures and security measures to properly safeguard NMCRL Proprietary Information from unauthorized use and from disclosure or release to unauthorized persons, to the same degree as the Licensee protects his own information of similar confidentiality.

3. The term "Proprietary Information" shall not apply to such portions of the NMCRL data which:

- (a) become generally available to the public.
- (b) become available to the Licensee on a non-confidential basis from a source other than AC/135 which is not prohibited from disclosing such information to the Licensee by a legal, contractual or fiduciary obligation.

4. TERMINATION
